

THE LIFE WHEEL

Creating a vision for your professional and personal life involves taking stock of where you are right now, at this very moment. Look at the categories below and provide a score in each of these areas. Keep in mind that depending on your season of life, you may want to re-name these categories to more appropriately suit you.

Shade in the wheel using the number guides you see below.

